

LAUNCH OF LIPID INDUSTRIAL HANDBOOK

First time such “Lipid Industrial Handbook” is released in India

About Us

OTAI (Oil Technologists' Association of India) is thrilled to announce the release of the “Lipid Industrial Handbook”—a one-of-its-kind comprehensive volume covering the latest trends, technologies, and regulatory insights into the world of lipids and allied products.

This handbook encompasses diverse aspects of processing, industry, and trade of vegetable oils, fats, oleo-chemicals, surfactants, detergents, personal care, and cosmetics.

Prepared by a constellation of lipid experts, scholars, and luminaries from industry, policymaking, trade, commerce, and OTAI.

OTAI is a non-profit organization established in 1943, before India's independence. It has been consistently serving trade, commerce, industries, policy makers, technocrats, industrialists, researchers, shop-floor managers, and students in the field of lipids.

Key Features of the Handbook
